SELETTI

SELETTI

A monkey, an hybrid cup, objects from the cyber-space, women on the rugs, industry chairs, a bookcase from the Renaissance. There is a leitmotiv which links, in a subtle but very clear way, all of the many souls of SELETTI, all of their lines and inspirations. Art, design, entertainment, innovation and originality have been by Seletti synonym of Italian excellence and eclecticism since 1964. This means an amazing, never-ending journey which constantly evolves, continuing up to now. SELETTI is all of this and much more, as (R)EVOLUTION IS THE ONLY SOLUTION.

Seletti enriches their LIGHTING line even more, with new iconic products which precisely confirm, with a sprinkle of wit and humour, the avant-garde and art-oriented spirit of the company. A new project combines the uniqueness of Studio Job's artistic imaginary with the more democratic soul of Seletti. Two are the products included in this range: Banana Lamp, the precious object which brought to fame Job Smeets and Nynke Tynagel, characterised by its golden colour and available in three models - Huey, Dewey & Louie -, and Tiffany Lamp, a resin-glass lamp which reinterprets the luxurious Art Nouveau classic with a contemporary style. The fruitful collaboration between Seletti and successful Italian designers goes on: with Marcantonio, after the by now best-seller Monkey Lamp, the fascination of the artist for the natural world and for the fantastic imaginary does not die out, but, on the contrary, finds new forms and ways of expression. Mouse Lamp are three nice white mice made of resin, irreverent and stealthy; Elephant Lamp recalls a romantic world, a fairy-tale in which elephant and moon meet on the top of the hill, Moonlight is an irresistible lamp, a mysterious and charming moon. Gio Tirotto designs Verso, symbol of an everlasting rise/descent: an adjustable sculpture desk lamp which evokes movement in physical and spiritual terms, an object suspended between reality and fantasy. Caractère, 21 letters which can be fixed on walls or placed on any furniture and which express the endless possibilities of communicating words and thoughts, completes the catalogue of the luminaires alphabet, which has already become the best-seller of the lighting collection.
